Vancouver Craft Beer Week 2019 Collaboration Beer Out This Friday. By CBN • May 15, 2019.

VANCOUVER, BC – The official collaboration beer for the 2019 edition of Vancouver Craft Beer Week (VCBW) is set for release later this week. Citrus notes up front, herbal backnote with odd hint of cherry candy. An interesting hop strain, hope to try more beers brewed with it. Federal officials are proposing changes to national beer standards that would widen the number of ingredients permitted in a pint and force brewers to list every ingredient on a can or bottle., The Ontario Craft Beer Guide.
